

Resort & Second-Home Property Specialist Certification Course

This two-day course from NAR is designed to teach the essentials of buying, selling, and managing resort properties and second-homes for recreation, investment and development.

After this course, you will be able to:

- Help clients evaluate and select the type of property, form of ownership, and financing options.
- Identify strategies for building a rental property business or assessing the investment value of property.
- Understanding the IRS guidelines for tax treatment of second-home vacation and investment properties.
- Use market statistics and trends to develop a business plan.

To earn the RSPS certification, REALTORS® must complete a few basic requirements:

1. Be in good standing with NAR.
2. Complete the one-day Resort and Second-Home Property Specialist Certification course.
3. Submit a one-time certification fee of $97.25.
